Instructions for Dinosaur Chase Board game – a game for two players

This is a game to play with your child. It uses what happens in the story and involves some reading as words and phrases from the story have been used. As you play the game read the cards with your child, you might find as you play the game on different occasions children begin to take on more responsibility for the reading and are able to recognise or predict what a word might say because of their knowledge of the story.

Instructions

What you need

You will need counters or dinosaur figures and a dice as well as the track game sheet and chance cards.

What to do

Print and cut out the chance cards and the track game sheet. Tape the two sides of the board together. You could mount the board on card for extra strength.

This is a game for 2 or more players. Each player has a different colour counter or dinosaur figure.

Throw the dice to see who should start. Highest number starts

When you land on a coloured square take either an orange or a green chance card (depending on the colour of the square).

Read the card and follow the instructions to move forward or back.

The winner is the first to reach the finish.
